

Pacific Coast Banking School
The Premier National Graduate School of Banking™

at the University of Washington

PACIFIC COAST BANKING SCHOOL and OREGON BANKERS ASSOCIATION 'RISE ABOVE THE REST' SCHOLARSHIP

To better educate our high-potential leaders in banking and to assist Oregon banks in this challenging economic time, Pacific Coast Banking School partners with Oregon Bankers Association (OBA) to offer a tuition scholarship for the 2010 Resident Session of Pacific Coast Banking School (PCBS).

THE PCBS PROGRAM

Since 1938, Pacific Coast Banking School, in partnership with the University of Washington Graduate School of Business, has offered a premier three year graduate-level leadership and financial management education program focused on the banking industry. The PCBS family includes over 10,000 bankers, with hundreds currently in key leadership roles in banks across the country. Premier instructors and cutting-edge curriculum offer practical answers to today's most critical banking dilemmas faced by bankers from all aspects of banking and all sizes of banks.

SCHOLARSHIP SESSION

Students enroll in a three year program, which includes a two-week resident session each August for three years. The 2010 session dates are August 22 – September 3 and is held on the University of Washington campus.

THE PROCESS

Tuition before the scholarship is applied is $4,225, which includes a non-refundable registration fee of $175, single room accommodations, meals and classes, along with administrative and faculty support for intersession work. The scholarship amount is $1,300 and is applicable to the first-year 2010 PCBS tuition only. The scholarship recipient is responsible for the $2,925 tuition balance.

The deadline for submitting scholarship applications to the OBA is May 15, 2010. Five applicants randomly selected from those who meet the basic criteria will be forwarded to PCBS for final selection of the candidate, which will be completed by June 15, 2010.

CANDIDATE PRE-REQUISITES

The scholarship nominee must complete:

- 1 – The PCBS 2010 Session Application
- 2 – The PCBS/ OBA Scholarship Application

These forms must be submitted by May 15, 2010.