PACIFIC COAST BANKING SCHOOL and WASHINGTON BANKERS ASSOCIATION 'RISE ABOVE THE REST' SCHOLARSHIP

To better educate our high-potential executives in the business of banking and to assist Washington bankers in their professional development goals, Pacific Coast Banking School partners with Washington Bankers Association (WBA) to offer a one-year tuition scholarship for the 2012 Resident Session of Pacific Coast Banking School (PCBS) in the amount of $2,200.

THE PCBS PROGRAM

Since 1938, Pacific Coast Banking School, in partnership with the University of Washington Graduate School of Business, has offered a premier three year graduate-level leadership and financial management education program focused on the banking industry. The PCBS family includes over 10,000 bankers, with hundreds currently in key leadership roles in banks across the country. Premier instructors and cutting-edge curriculum offer practical answers to today's most critical banking dilemmas faced by bankers from all aspects of banking and all sizes of banks.

SCHOLARSHIP SESSION

Students enroll in a three year program, which includes a two-week resident session each August for three years held on the University of Washington campus in Seattle. The next session dates are August 19 – 31, 2012.

THE PROCESS

Tuition before the scholarship is applied is $4,425, which includes a non-refundable registration fee of $295, single room accommodations, meals and classes, along with administrative and faculty support for intersession work. The scholarship amount is $2,200 and will be contributed to the first year of the three-year program for one Washington banker. The scholarship recipient is responsible for the balance of the tuition; in 2012 that amount is $2,225.

The deadline for submitting scholarship applications to the Washington Bankers Association is May 15, 2012. The recipient of the scholarship will be selected by June 15, 2012.
